

A set of rules and consequences to help with the running of the Toronto Scottish men's teams.

Fines – all money goes towards beer on bus trips and social events

Dress code = $1 per offence

- Red Scottish warm up shirt. (Yes, that include you B-Rock and Petey Wilson)
- New players must have a red shirt for warm up.
- Red Scottish socks for game day.
- White shorts (no other team shorts)
- Blue after game polo shirt

Late fines - $1 per offence

- Being late. On time is 1hr before specified K.O. time for 1st and 45min for 2nd team unless specified differently. Third team must be dressed and ready to warm up 30mins/ when Eddy/coach/ captain says so. Only exemptions are for those with foresight to call/ email ahead as they know they might be late, due to work reason, for example. Calling ahead when you are already late will not exempt you of a late fine. No exemption for John Mangold. If a coach is late it is a double fine.
- Being late for the warm up i.e. not dressed and taped = late fine.
- Bus trip. Less than 5min late = single fine, 5-10mins late double fine, 10-20 quadruple fine. More than 20mins late = taxi fare to the game.
- Mangold's fine doubles every time he is late. If anyone else is late more than twice they shall receive the rule of Mangold.
- If you are later to arrive than Mangold when Mangold is late then it is a double fine.

Discipline

- Yellow card for backchat or fighting = $10
- Yellow card for crappy things e.g. team offences = $5

- Smoking on the sidelines (rule of Cam) with boots/ shorts/ socks on = $2 + squirted with a water bottle.
- Not turning up to a game when you have said you would and not letting us know at least 8 hours before specified K.O. time (rule of Eric) = $10 + An apology to the team

New rules may be added by added by P, VP, DOR, Captains and coaches as and when needed.
